

over the fence and under the oak tree

Recipes from the Dunsandel School & Community

Over the fence and under the oak tree is a colourful cookbook comprising of over 180 recipes and 200 photos. Recipes have been donated from our school and district, making this a 'tried and tested' cookbook, capturing the spirit of our community. We know you will enjoy this coffee table style book, and we are sure it will become one of your favourites.

All funds raised are going towards the upgrade of the information communication and technology, and the outdoor environment for the children of Dunsandel School.
